Educational News.

(BY EARL A. ROCK, CO. SUPT.)

The first quarterly examination questions, prepared by the State Superintendent, are being sent out to the teachers. Teachers are requested to give the examinations on Thursday and Friday preceding the close of the first quarter of the term, and to keep a record of all grades made on the examinations.

Parents and pupils should examine carefully the report cards which will be filled and given out at the end of each quarter.

Low grades indicate unsatisfactory work. When grades are low an investigation should be made by parents and pupil. It may be that the pupil is taking too advanced work, method of study poor, or he is not taking an interest in the work. In such cases if parents would consult and co-operate with the teacher, matters may be easily adjusted.

Miss Pearl Carver, one of our non-resident teachers, has an excellent school at Squaw Creek. She is doing some excellent work in nature study and art.

A. W. Norman is teaching his fourth term at Franklin. He has four boys in the ninth grade who are doing excellent work.

Elvis Meadows, another of our good teachers, has an excellent school at South Center. He also has a ninth grade who are working hard to make good.

Mayme Noelsch is teaching her second term at Rising Sun. Her enrollment is three and one-half times larger than last year, seven being enrolled.

Silas Skelton has a large school at Benton, forty-seven being enrolled. He also has a class of ninth-grade pupils. Mr. Skelton is from Maryville.

Jessie Cain and Miss Hampton are doing good work at New Point. They have sixty-six enrolled. Five of this number are in the ninth grade and six in the tenth grade.

A. O. Williams and pupils are doing good work at Mayflower. Mr. Williams is an experienced teacher and has excellent methods of presentation.

Miss Orlena Campbell has a good school at Oakland. The pupils are enthused in the work and attend regularly. So far they have 100 per cent in attendance.

Teachers and pupils begin now to prepare for the exhibit. Mr. Reavis will be with us at that time.

The first district meeting will be held at Forbes, Saturday, October 14, 1911. This is one of the required meetings. The law makes it the duty of all teachers in the district to attend. Townships included are Forest, Forbes and Lewis.

The following program will be rendered:

His First Sermon.

Sunday last, Rev. L. C. Powell, the new assignment for the M. E. church, delivered his first sermon of the conference year, and was greeted by a good audience. He has been in the ministry for 23 years, and seems to have started off, getting hold of the heartstrings of his people. We find him a very congenial and companionable gentleman, and one who seems ready to mix and say "hello" as he meets you, and with a kindly greeting helps to make you acquainted. For years he resided in Maryville, and seems fully acquainted with this portion of our state. His wife has joined him, and ere another week passes they will be at home at the parsonage, with his latchstring on the outside.

On Tuesday evening, a formal reception was tendered him and wife, at the elegant Tochterman home, and he became personally acquainted with a very large majority of his members. Elegant refreshments were served, and he begins his work with the sun shining brightly.

THE SENTINEL bids him a most cordial welcome.

—The High school tennis team played tennis at Oregon last Saturday.—Maitland Herald, Oct. 5th. By a peculiar lapse of memory, the editor left out the most interesting part of his item. He forgot to mention the fact that the Oregon boys trimmed the Maitland team nicely in both singles and doubles. He wasn't so forgetful last year when the result was the other way. It's queer how such things happen, isn't it?

Earthly Possessions.

Mrs. Emilie Blair, who died September 1, left a will, which was filed for probate last week. It was executed October 1, 1908, and witnessed by Jacob Hook and R. E. Decker. It makes her daughter, Mattie M. Blair, executrix. She bequeaths all her property, both real and personal, to her daughter, Mattie M.

The will of George E. Ambrose, who died September 17, was filed for probate last week. The will was executed August 27, 1911, in the presence of W. E. Stubbs and S. W. Proud. It provides that his wife, Ella L., be the executrix. To his children, Kirk, Verne and Phoebe, he bequeaths $10 each. The remainder of the estate, both real and personal, he gives to his wife.

New Funeral Car.

Thatcher & Dawson have now located themselves in the Sterrett building, and are taking steps to finish it in a modern style undertaking room and chapel. They have just had their funeral car overhauled, and placed the decorating and painting in the hands of Lee Greene. It was given an even dozen dressings, the last being in a beautifully finished steel gray, the inner draperies being of snow white plush. It is undoubtedly one of the handsomest funeral cars in this section of the state, and looks good enough for anybody to take a ride in, but then no one has any special "hankering" to do so. Mr. Greene is to be congratulated on this splendid specimen of his workmanship.

Fine Hay for Sale.

G. W. Pulliam, of Forbes, has about 1,000 tons of Blue Stem Hay, baled, for sale, at $7.50 per ton.

Land+Water=Good Crops Land—Water=Failure

The Big Horn Basin and Yellowstone Valley Have an Abundance of Water for Irrigation Purposes

The Government has made ample provision to supply each and every farmer under its canals with sufficient water during the crop growing season to cover each and every acre of his farm two feet deep. This is equal to twelve heavy rains of two inches each. Just think what it would have meant to your community during the crop growing season, just closed, if your farmer's could have turned on twelve two inch rains at will. You can do this next year and every year thereafter as long as you are farming, if you will go with me to Powell, Wyoming, and file on one of the Government irrigated homesteads, now ready for entry.
